Description

The problem is that there is no error message displayed when the user tries to sign up with email with greater length than specified

Steps to reproduce:

1. Navigate to <http://poll-app7-20200409.softacad.bg/signup>
2. Click on the email field and type an email which is more than 41 characters long.

Expected result: Registration is not successful. The border around the field should turn red and an error message should appear:

Email is too long (Maximum 40 characters needed.)

Actual result: Registration is not successful but no error message is displayed to notify the user has typed an email longer than 40 characters.

Please refer to the linked test case for further information.

Hi Stephan,

Please consider this issue I found in v.1.1.1 of the Polling app.
